Center for Gaming Research Update
August 2013

UNLV Gaming Press has launched

A collaboration between the University Libraries, the UNLV Harrah Hotel College, and the UNLV William S. Boyd School of Law, the UNLV Gaming Press will make available, both electronically and in print, the scholarly output of university-sponsored conferences, historic materials that the university holds, and new work that illuminates the legal, economic, social, and historical dimension of gambling and gaming in all of its forms.

Our first book, Frontiers in Chance: Gaming Research across the Disciplines, is now available for purchase in paperback at all online bookstores and in three ebook platforms: Kindle, Nook, and Kobo.

Our second book, Regulating Internet Gaming: Challenges and Opportunities, is now available for purchase in paperback at all online bookstores and in three ebook platforms: Kindle, Nook, and Kobo..

William R. Eadington, 1946-2013

The gaming industry lost a major figure earlier this year when Bill Eadington, director of the Institute for the Study of Gaming and Commercial Gambling at the University of Nevada, Reno, passed away. We at the Center for Gaming Research are saddened by his passing for both personal and professional reasons: he was a friend and mentor to thousands of people in gaming and academia.

Before Bill's passing, we worked with him to endow and rename our existing fellowship program in his honor. UNLV Libraries has set up a fund to rename the program the William R. Eadington Gaming Fellows, ensuring that "Eadington fellows" will be studying gambling and keeping his work alive for years to come. To contribute to the fund, please contact Libraries development director Tamara Michel Jossierand at (702) 895-2239 or tamara.jossierand@unlv.edu.

To donate online, please go to this page and, in the scroll down menu, select "Eadington Fellows."

Sharing Expertise with the Media

In July, Center Director David G. Schwartz spoke with approximately 37 print, online, radio, and television media contacts about topics ranging from online gaming legalization to retail developments in Las Vegas.
