
CENTER FOR GAMING RESEARCH UPDATE | May 2015

New Project: Pit Boss Oral Histories

The Center is proud to announce that it has begun an ambitious new project that will document one of the key positions in gaming, the pit boss. A 10-week oral history program will capture interviews with current and former pit bosses, shedding light on the ins and outs of this role.

If you are or know of a current or former pit boss who would like to be interviewed for this project, please contact Center Director David G. Schwartz, 702-895-2242 or dgs@unlv.nevada.edu.

William R. Eadington, 1946-2013

The gaming industry lost a major figure last year when Bill Eadington, director of the Institute for the Study of Gaming and Commercial Gambling at the University of Nevada, Reno, passed away. UNLV Libraries has set up a fund to rename the program the William R. Eadington Gaming Fellows, ensuring that "Eadington fellows" will be studying gambling and keeping his work alive for years to come. To contribute to the fund, please contact Libraries development director Tamara Michel Josserand at (702) 895-2239 or tamara.josserand@unlv.edu.

To donate online, please go to this page and, in the scroll down menu, select "Eadington Fellows."

Sharing Expertise with the Media

In April, Center Director David G. Schwartz spoke with approximately 17 print, online, radio, and television media contacts about a range of topics.
